

COP~~x~~*

The global majority needed
for climate action

*Conferences of People, independently organized

People want climate action. There IS political will

Ordinary people understand the climate crisis

Climate is a shared concern, but that common ground is not visible yet

People feel profoundly alone and powerless

Citizens ask what THEY can do

People want hope, not doom, and we have the solutions to solve the climate crisis

30 years of UN COPs have failed us

Negotiators often do not represent the interests of their constituency

Rule of unanimity forces a "lowest common denominator" consensus

Process is dominated by petro-states and capital

The almost 100,000 observers – often world experts – can only "observe"

We are out of time

The climate crisis grows exponentially, triggering global tipping points

Our window for action is closing – the next 5 years will set humanity's future

We have all the solutions we need

The COP~~x~~ Solution:

Climate Action from people – for people

ENGAGE PEOPLE WHERE THEY ARE

instead of in far-away
negotiations

BRING
SOLUTIONS
TO YOU

Instead of talk

BUILD TRUST
AND SHARED VALUES

instead of pyramids of powers

CONNECT
LOCAL ACTION
WITH GLOBAL MOVEMENT

instead of nation-state
diplomacy

EMPOWER YOU
TO TAKE ACTION

instead of feeling helpless

COP~~x~~ is the alternative to the UN climate conferences

These COP~~x~~ events will:

COP~~x~~ will create the biggest event - ever

Tens of thousands of volunteer organizers will hold small and climate conferences

This will build the COPx platform (Open Impact)

Make the silent majority visible

Engage circles of trust to think together about their solutions

Be a wake up call to policy makes

COP^x cultivates local action in global community

The COP^x platform connects a global community with local goals – sharing expertise, inspiration and methods to start climate action in whatever way works for you.

COP^x is the global emotional home for climate activists, providing the ability to reach everyone active: THE center of the conversation about climate and how to solve it.

The COP^x platform provides:

Global connection & networking opportunities

Access to climate action resources & supporting materials

Regional sites for local groups to self-organize

From Students to Global Leaders

No action too small

A community of COPx organizers assembled from around the world demonstrates the power of climate action at local levels – and at all scales. COPx organizers may take action within their own lives, in their communities, in their cities, in their countries. Wherever they start, they join a community with experience, expertise and climate action commitment.

STUDENT ORGANIZER
Germany

Franzi Heckel, a student in Berlin, is organizing her university to hold dialogues about the climate crisis.

SOLVING HUNGER
USA

Julia DeSantis, Head of Sustainability at Farmlink Project, links surplus food on farms with hungry people, benefiting both.

REGENERATING FINANCE & AG
Egypt

Helmy Abouleish, leader of an agro-economic group of companies, is pioneering regenerative economy approaches.

CARBON MARKET MOBILIZATION
Mexico

“Pati” Ruiz, is restoring the Sierra Gordo mountains, creating a carbon market funded by the state government.

TRANSFORMING AGRICULTURE
India

Vijay Kumar is empowering millions of poor farmers, many of them women, to shift to regenerative agriculture.

The Power of COPx

- How can I engage my community for climate action?
COPx has ideas, and will help manifest yours.
- I need partners for a local initiative.
Reach out to the COPx community for support.
- I want to mobilize my company to use solar.
Has someone in the COPx community done this before?
- A local company has climate destructive practices. What can I do?
COPx has toolkits.
- My community wants to cut plastic use.
The COPx community has low plastic solutions.

COPx creates “LEGO magic”

The first Lego designer had little idea what users would create with their little bricks.

Similarly, we can only guess the awesome creative uses to which people, existing groups, communities, cities, regions will put COPx.

Designing a finer future for everyone, we will celebrate the diversity and creativity of the billions who will come to climate action.

The creativity and spirit of organizers will inspire.

COPx Values

- 1. WE ARE UNIFIED BY OUR FIGHT AGAINST CLIMATE CHANGE
We might argue about the best pathways to avert the worst crises, but all agree to put life and our natural habitat above all else.
- 2. WE THRIVE ON OUR DIVERSITY AND RESPECT DIFFERENCES
We are stronger because we integrate people of all walks of global society, creeds, gender, political preferences, professions, and everything else that makes each one of us special.
- 3. WE BELIEVE IN THE POWER OF DIALOGUE AND LEARNING
We engage in fact-based arguments internally and externally and are ready to challenge our beliefs and assumptions; we appreciate different perspectives on the situation we are all in.
- 4. COPX IS A PEACEFUL MOVEMENT
We do not tolerate violence, abuse, or threats of any form, physical or verbal.
- 5. WE PUT SAFETY FIRST
Even peaceful demonstrations can be risky at times, please prioritize the safety and integrity of everyone.

Growing the COP~~x~~ Community

STEALTH MODE – INVITE ONLY

COPx has a growing group of those who know: It's discussed in climate circles. The website is protected, but registrations come in, a solid inner core of COPx organizers is building.

FIRST TIER OUTREACH

COP29 will fail, as ever. Having built a core network of supporters, we launch and start our global outreach. COPx invites individuals to become organizers, "inspiring" existing circles of trust.

PUBLIC MEDIA OUTREACH

COPx gathers speed, size and attention. Networks activate networks, media attention, influencers, talk shows, etc. COPx organizers around the world generate creative content. The buzz is: we are building the largest grassroots event ever.

LAUNCH EVENTS GROW COP~~x~~

Invest In COPx

COPx asks € 2 million funding to ramp up to the Big Event in 2025

We anticipate needing € 5 million each year to sustain COPx through 2030

Detailed budget upon request.

A large flock of birds, possibly doves, is captured in flight against a backdrop of a blue sky with soft, white clouds. The birds are arranged in a loose, circular formation, with many more birds visible in the lower-left quadrant, creating a sense of movement and unity. The overall tone is hopeful and aspirational.
